

Heinen's Chardon Location
402 Center St,
Chardon, OH 44024

Dear Heinen's,

Chardon Tomorrow, a Nationally Accredited Main Street 501c-3 non-profit organization, has applied a petition with the Ohio Department of Commerce and will subsequently petition with the Geauga Board of Elections to permit Sunday Liquor Sales (D-6) within Ward A, Chardon City. If approved, the ballot issue for form 5-E, questions 1, 2, 3 (see enclosed), would appear on the Ward A Chardon City ballot in November's general election.

As a current D-6 permit holder in this precinct we wanted to make you aware of our intentions. Our goal is not to cannibalize any other restaurant or retailers current business, but rather grow the local economy and drive even more revenue to ALL of our Chardon businesses. We believe having a strong, complementary mix of businesses and retailers open every day of the week will spur growth throughout the city of Chardon.

Please feel free to contact our offices with any questions or concerns you might have on this initiative.

Sincerely,

Mary Glauser
Executive Director,
Chardon Tomorrow

Chardon Tavern
405 Water St
Chardon, OH 44024

Dear Chardon Tavern,

Chardon Tomorrow, a Nationally Accredited Main Street 501c-3 non-profit organization, has applied a petition with the Ohio Department of Commerce and will subsequently petition with the Geauga Board of Elections to permit Sunday Liquor Sales (D-6) within Ward A, Chardon City. If approved, the ballot issue for form 5-E, questions 1, 2, 3 (see enclosed), would appear on the Ward A Chardon City ballot in November's general election.

As a current D-6 permit holder in this precinct we wanted to make you aware of our intentions. Our goal is not to cannibalize any other restaurant or retailers current business, but rather grow the local economy and drive even more revenue to ALL of our Chardon businesses. We believe having a strong, complementary mix of businesses and retailers open every day of the week will spur growth throughout the city of Chardon.

Please feel free to contact our offices with any questions or concerns you might have on this initiative.

Sincerely,

Mary Glauser
Executive Director,
Chardon Tomorrow

Chardon Lake Golf Course
470 South St
Chardon, OH 44024

Dear Chardon Lakes Golf Course,

Chardon Tomorrow, a Nationally Accredited Main Street 501c-3 non-profit organization, has applied a petition with the Ohio Department of Commerce and will subsequently petition with the Geauga Board of Elections to permit Sunday Liquor Sales (D-6) within Ward A, Chardon City. If approved, the ballot issue for form 5-E, questions 1, 2, 3 (see enclosed), would appear on the Ward A Chardon City ballot in November's general election.

As a current D-6 permit holder in this precinct we wanted to make you aware of our intentions. Our goal is not to cannibalize any other restaurant or retailers current business, but rather grow the local economy and drive even more revenue to ALL of our Chardon businesses. We believe having a strong, complementary mix of businesses and retailers open every day of the week will spur growth throughout the city of Chardon.

Please feel free to contact our offices with any questions or concerns you might have on this initiative.

Sincerely,

Mary Glauser
Executive Director,
Chardon Tomorrow

El Patron
301 Center St #1
Chardon, OH 44024

Dear el Patron,

Chardon Tomorrow, a Nationally Accredited Main Street 501c-3 non-profit organization, has applied a petition with the Ohio Department of Commerce and will subsequently petition with the Geauga Board of Elections to permit Sunday Liquor Sales (D-6) within Ward A, Chardon City. If approved, the ballot issue for form 5-E, questions 1, 2, 3 (see enclosed), would appear on the Ward A Chardon City ballot in November's general election.

As a current D-6 permit holder in this precinct we wanted to make you aware of our intentions. Our goal is not to cannibalize any other restaurant or retailers current business, but rather grow the local economy and drive even more revenue to ALL of our Chardon businesses. We believe having a strong, complementary mix of businesses and retailers open every day of the week will spur growth throughout the city of Chardon.

Please feel free to contact our offices with any questions or concerns you might have on this initiative.

Sincerely,

Mary Glauser
Executive Director,
Chardon Tomorrow

Marc's
425 Water Street
Chardon, OH 44024

Dear Marc's,

Chardon Tomorrow, a Nationally Accredited Main Street 501c-3 non-profit organization, has applied a petition with the Ohio Department of Commerce and will subsequently petition with the Geauga Board of Elections to permit Sunday Liquor Sales (D-6) within Ward A, Chardon City. If approved, the ballot issue for form 5-E, questions 1, 2, 3 (see enclosed), would appear on the Ward A Chardon City ballot in November's general election.

As a current D-6 permit holder in this precinct we wanted to make you aware of our intentions. Our goal is not to cannibalize any other restaurant or retailers current business, but rather grow the local economy and drive even more revenue to ALL of our Chardon businesses. We believe having a strong, complementary mix of businesses and retailers open every day of the week will spur growth throughout the city of Chardon.

Please feel free to contact our offices with any questions or concerns you might have on this initiative.

Sincerely,

Mary Glauser
Executive Director,
Chardon Tomorrow

CVS, Chardon Store
296 Center Street
Chardon, OH 44024

Dear Chardon Tavern,

Chardon Tomorrow, a Nationally Accredited Main Street 501c-3 non-profit organization, has applied a petition with the Ohio Department of Commerce and will subsequently petition with the Geauga Board of Elections to permit Sunday Liquor Sales (D-6) within Ward A, Chardon City. If approved, the ballot issue for form 5-E, questions 1, 2, 3 (see enclosed), would appear on the Ward A Chardon City ballot in November's general election.

As a current D-6 permit holder in this precinct we wanted to make you aware of our intentions. Our goal is not to cannibalize any other restaurant or retailers current business, but rather grow the local economy and drive even more revenue to ALL of our Chardon businesses. We believe having a strong, complementary mix of businesses and retailers open every day of the week will spur growth throughout the city of Chardon.

Please feel free to contact our offices with any questions or concerns you might have on this initiative.

Sincerely,

Mary Glauser
Executive Director,
Chardon Tomorrow

Sines & Sons, Chardon Marathon
380 Center Street
Chardon, OH 44024

Dear Sines & Sons Marathon,

Chardon Tomorrow, a Nationally Accredited Main Street 501c-3 non-profit organization, has applied a petition with the Ohio Department of Commerce and will subsequently petition with the Geauga Board of Elections to permit Sunday Liquor Sales (D-6) within Ward A, Chardon City. If approved, the ballot issue for form 5-E, questions 1, 2, 3 (see enclosed), would appear on the Ward A Chardon City ballot in November's general election.

As a current D-6 permit holder in this precinct we wanted to make you aware of our intentions. Our goal is not to cannibalize any other restaurant or retailers current business, but rather grow the local economy and drive even more revenue to ALL of our Chardon businesses. We believe having a strong, complementary mix of businesses and retailers open every day of the week will spur growth throughout the city of Chardon.

Please feel free to contact our offices with any questions or concerns you might have on this initiative.

Sincerely,

Mary Glauser
Executive Director,
Chardon Tomorrow

Bass Lake Taverne
426 South Street
Chardon, OH 44024

Dear Bass Lake Tavern,

Chardon Tomorrow, a Nationally Accredited Main Street 501c-3 non-profit organization, has applied a petition with the Ohio Department of Commerce and will subsequently petition with the Geauga Board of Elections to permit Sunday Liquor Sales (D-6) within Ward A, Chardon City. If approved, the ballot issue for form 5-E, questions 1, 2, 3 (see enclosed), would appear on the Ward A Chardon City ballot in November's general election.

As a current D-6 permit holder in this precinct we wanted to make you aware of our intentions. Our goal is not to cannibalize any other restaurant or retailers current business, but rather grow the local economy and drive even more revenue to ALL of our Chardon businesses. We believe having a strong, complementary mix of businesses and retailers open every day of the week will spur growth throughout the city of Chardon.

Please feel free to contact our offices with any questions or concerns you might have on this initiative.

Sincerely,

Mary Glauser
Executive Director,
Chardon Tomorrow

Tamarkin Co/Get Go
318 Center Street,
Chardon, OH 44024

Dear Tarmarkin Co/Get Go,

Chardon Tomorrow, a Nationally Accredited Main Street 501c-3 non-profit organization, has applied a petition with the Ohio Department of Commerce and will subsequently petition with the Geauga Board of Elections to permit Sunday Liquor Sales (D-6) within Ward A, Chardon City. If approved, the ballot issue for form 5-E, questions 1, 2, 3 (see enclosed), would appear on the Ward A Chardon City ballot in November's general election.

As a current D-6 permit holder in this precinct we wanted to make you aware of our intentions. Our goal is not to cannibalize any other restaurant or retailers current business, but rather grow the local economy and drive even more revenue to ALL of our Chardon businesses. We believe having a strong, complementary mix of businesses and retailers open every day of the week will spur growth throughout the city of Chardon.

Please feel free to contact our offices with any questions or concerns you might have on this initiative.

Sincerely,

Mary Glauser
Executive Director,
Chardon Tomorrow

VFW Post 6519
752 Water Street
Chardon, OH 44024

Dear VFW Post 6519,

Chardon Tomorrow, a Nationally Accredited Main Street 501c-3 non-profit organization, has applied a petition with the Ohio Department of Commerce and will subsequently petition with the Geauga Board of Elections to permit Sunday Liquor Sales (D-6) within Ward A, Chardon City. If approved, the ballot issue for form 5-E, questions 1, 2, 3 (see enclosed), would appear on the Ward A Chardon City ballot in November's general election.

As a current D-6 permit holder in this precinct we wanted to make you aware of our intentions. Our goal is not to cannibalize any other restaurant or retailers current business, but rather grow the local economy and drive even more revenue to ALL of our Chardon businesses. We believe having a strong, complementary mix of businesses and retailers open every day of the week will spur growth throughout the city of Chardon.

Please feel free to contact our offices with any questions or concerns you might have on this initiative.

Sincerely,

Mary Glauser
Executive Director,
Chardon Tomorrow

Chardon Walmart
223 Meadowlands Dr
Chardon, OH 44024

Dear Chardon Walmart,

Chardon Tomorrow, a Nationally Accredited Main Street 501c-3 non-profit organization, has applied a petition with the Ohio Department of Commerce and will subsequently petition with the Geauga Board of Elections to permit Sunday Liquor Sales (D-6) within Ward A, Chardon City. If approved, the ballot issue for form 5-E, questions 1, 2, 3 (see enclosed), would appear on the Ward A Chardon City ballot in November's general election.

As a current D-6 permit holder in this precinct we wanted to make you aware of our intentions. Our goal is not to cannibalize any other restaurant or retailers current business, but rather grow the local economy and drive even more revenue to ALL of our Chardon businesses. We believe having a strong, complementary mix of businesses and retailers open every day of the week will spur growth throughout the city of Chardon.

Please feel free to contact our offices with any questions or concerns you might have on this initiative.

Sincerely,

Mary Glauser
Executive Director,
Chardon Tomorrow

Riser Foods, Chardon Giant Eagle
351 Center Street
Chardon, OH 44024

Dear Giant Eagle,

Chardon Tomorrow, a Nationally Accredited Main Street 501c-3 non-profit organization, has applied a petition with the Ohio Department of Commerce and will subsequently petition with the Geauga Board of Elections to permit Sunday Liquor Sales (D-6) within Ward A, Chardon City. If approved, the ballot issue for form 5-E, questions 1, 2, 3 (see enclosed), would appear on the Ward A Chardon City ballot in November's general election.

As a current D-6 permit holder in this precinct we wanted to make you aware of our intentions. Our goal is not to cannibalize any other restaurant or retailers current business, but rather grow the local economy and drive even more revenue to ALL of our Chardon businesses. We believe having a strong, complementary mix of businesses and retailers open every day of the week will spur growth throughout the city of Chardon.

Please feel free to contact our offices with any questions or concerns you might have on this initiative.

Sincerely,

Mary Glauser
Executive Director,
Chardon Tomorrow

FEO
317 Water Street
Chardon, OH 44024

Dear Fraternal Order of Eagles,

Chardon Tomorrow, a Nationally Accredited Main Street 501c-3 non-profit organization, has applied a petition with the Ohio Department of Commerce and will subsequently petition with the Geauga Board of Elections to permit Sunday Liquor Sales (D-6) within Ward A, Chardon City. If approved, the ballot issue for form 5-E, questions 1, 2, 3 (see enclosed), would appear on the Ward A Chardon City ballot in November's general election.

As a current D-6 permit holder in this precinct we wanted to make you aware of our intentions. Our goal is not to cannibalize any other restaurant or retailers current business, but rather grow the local economy and drive even more revenue to ALL of our Chardon businesses. We believe having a strong, complementary mix of businesses and retailers open every day of the week will spur growth throughout the city of Chardon.

Please feel free to contact our offices with any questions or concerns you might have on this initiative.

Sincerely,

Mary Glauser
Executive Director,
Chardon Tomorrow

CVS, Chardon Store
296 Center Street
Chardon, OH 44024

Dear Chardon Tavern,

Chardon Tomorrow, a Nationally Accredited Main Street 501c-3 non-profit organization, has applied a petition with the Ohio Department of Commerce and will subsequently petition with the Geauga Board of Elections to permit Sunday Liquor Sales (D-6) within Ward A, Chardon City. If approved, the ballot issue for form 5-E, questions 1, 2, 3 (see enclosed), would appear on the Ward A Chardon City ballot in November's general election.

As a current D-6 permit holder in this precinct we wanted to make you aware of our intentions. Our goal is not to cannibalize any other restaurant or retailers current business, but rather grow the local economy and drive even more revenue to ALL of our Chardon businesses. We believe having a strong, complementary mix of businesses and retailers open every day of the week will spur growth throughout the city of Chardon.

Please feel free to contact our offices with any questions or concerns you might have on this initiative.

Sincerely,

Mary Glauser
Executive Director,
Chardon Tomorrow

